

WORD OF THE WEEK:

NATIVE

na·ive

(nī-ēv', nă-)

PART OF SPEECH/DEFINITION:

- ADJ.:
1. Lacking worldly experience and understanding.
 2. Simple and guileless; artless.
 3. Unsuspecting or credulous.
 4. Showing or characterized by a lack of sophistication and critical judgment.

SENTENCE: It may have been a little naïve of me to pay a dollar to find out something that seemed to be obvious to others.
