

WORD OF THE WEEK:

LABORIOUS

la·bo·ri·ous [luh-bawr-ee-uhs]

PART OF SPEECH/DEFINITION:

- ADJ.:
1. requiring much work, exertion, or perseverance.
 2. characterized by extreme care and much attention to detail.
 3. exhibiting excessive effort, dullness, and lack of spontaneity.
 4. given to or diligent in work.

SENTENCE: After a two-month hiatus, school may seem laborious, at first. But protesting learning and reading can be just as laborious.
