Students who are registered to repeat a class due to failure will be responsible for the tuition costs if after the first week of summer school classes voluntarily, through absence, or discipline do not complete the course.

ATTENDANCE

Due to the accelerated nature of the summer school program, and the need for students to be present every day, strict attendance policies are in force during summer school. Failure to abide by established attendance policies will result in withdrawal from the course and a "WF" recorded on the student's transcript. The accumulation of two "cuts", no matter what the reason, will result in such removal. Students will be assigned cuts for any absence from class for any amount of time. Cuts will also be assigned for accumulation of three tardies to class. IF YOUR CHILD WILL BE UNABLE TO MEET THIS SUMMER SCHOOL ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENT DUE TO FAMILY OBLIGATIONS, VACATION PLANS, EMPLOYMENT, OR OTHER CIRCUMSTANCES, PLEASE DO NOT ENROLL.

WITHDRAWAL PROCEDURES

Students desiring to withdraw from summer school must do so through their counselor. If proper withdrawal procedures are not followed, the student will not receive a refund. Students registering and paying tuition for summer school, but not regularly attending class, will be dropped from summer school, with no refund, unless the summer school administrator approves other arrangements.

REFUND PROCEDURES

Students who have paid summer school tuition may withdraw through June 1, 2010, without penalty and receive a full refund. ANY STUDENT WITHDRAWING FROM SUMMER SCHOOL AFTER JUNE 1, 2010, WILL NOT RECEIVE A REFUND. Refund checks are issued from the school business office and mailed to students' homes during the month of August.

DISCIPLINE

Students must be aware of and follow all these regulations. Failure to abide by these regulations, including the School Discipline Code, may cause the student to be involuntarily withdrawn failing (W/F) from the summer school program without eligibility for a refund.

Minor infractions will result in parental notification with a second infraction resulting in automatic withdrawal from summer school without a refund and the assignment of a failing grade. Students may be dropped from summer school for any major disciplinary infraction as defined in the Oak Lawn Student Discipline Code, with no refund of tuition.
